Jacqueline Scott

Jacque has assisted the FSCPM and FTECPM in accomplishing their missions by her actions. Jacque is one of the founding members of the FTECPM and it's first secretary. As the secretary she has created and distributed all of the minutes from our board and general chapter meetings. Since the majority of FTECPM chapter members are all geographically separated from each other the preferred meeting method is tele/video conferencing. This makes the job of taking and keeping minutes much more difficult. Jacque has produced her minutes flawlessly and within 24 hours after the conclusion of the meeting. Jacque was also involved in a presentation for the AACPM conference even though she was apprehensive about her public speaking skills. The presentation was well received and rated a success by all that were present. In addition she worked at the FSCPM booth for the CPM graduation held in conjunction with the AACPM conference. Again her efforts were much applauded and resulted in the registration of new members for the FSCPM. Jacque continues to go above and beyond by coordinating the events and speakers for the 2010 FSCPM annual symposium.
