5. State Society and American Society Activities: (50 points) Please list Offices held, involvement and leadership in Academy and Society activities including committee assignments and year(s) of service. (If you prefer you can copy/paste your write-up from Word) Fred is currently the Membership Director for the Florida Society of Certified Public Managers and is a Board Member of the South Florida Chapter. During this period, Florida has increased its membership to approximately 400 members and the South Florida chapter has more than 100 members. Fred also serves on the AACPM Membership Affairs and AACM Restructuring Committees. He is a trustee of the fraternity of Zeta Beta Tau at the University of Miami. The mission of ZBT is to foster and develop in its membership the tenets of its Credo: Intellectual Awareness, Social Responsibility, Integrity and Brotherly Love in order to cultivate leadership and service within their communities.

6. Career Accomplishments: (35 points) List activities that can be considered to be career, job-related accomplishments. Highlight areas that illustrate specific and/or unique leadership qualities, innovations and contributions to management. Do not include a job description or a listing of tasks. (If you prefer you can copy/paste your write-up from Word) Fred worked for the Florida Department of Transportation as a Contract Support Technician. He has a great talent for taking highly technical jargon and translating it for the common user. His dedication to customer service, enthusiasm for going the extra mile and genuine caring for the customer are evident in even the briefest conversations. Fred and his family recently moved to Jacksonville. His current job duties are to find a new home and being Mr. Mom - a daunting task!

7. Community Service: (15 points) List activities that illustrate community involvement. List areas that highlight leadership qualities within community service and year of service. (If you prefer you can copy/paste your write-up from Word) Fred is a Past Master of a Masonic Lodge. Masonry teaches that each person has a responsibility to make things better in the world. Most individuals won't be the ones to find a cure for cancer, or eliminate poverty, or help create world peace, but every man and woman and child can do something to help others and to make things a little better. Masonry is deeply involved with helping people-it spends more than $1.4 million dollars every day in the United States, just to make life a little easier. And the great majority of that help goes to people who are not Masons. Fred is also a life member of the Medinah Shriners. The mission of the Shriners is committed to fostering self improvement through leadership, education, the perpetuation of moral values and community involvement, serving mankind through the resources of its great philanthropy, the Shriners Hospitals for Children.
