

CHARLIE CRIST
GOVERNOR

CERTIFIED PUBLIC MANAGER RECOGNITION WEEK

WHEREAS, essential services to the citizens of the State of Florida are provided by all levels of government and public sector managers; and

WHEREAS, many of these services are directed and managed through the efficient, ethical, and professional job performance of designated certified public managers; and

WHEREAS, these certified public managers have maintained and improved their management and leadership skills through the completion of the comprehensive certified public manager curriculum and participation in on-going certified public manager organizational activities and training events; and

WHEREAS, the state's citizens, and society as a whole, benefit from the enhanced professionalism of these dedicated certified public managers; and

WHEREAS, this designated week provides the opportunity for all government and public sector entities to recognize the contributions of certified public managers;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Charlie Crist, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing the week of August 11, 2010, as Certified Public Manager Recognition Week throughout the state and encourage all Floridians to recognize our certified public managers for their commitment to enhancing the quality and availability of government services.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capitol, this 9th day of August, in the year two thousand ten.

Governor
